

"In every generation, each person is obligated to see himself as if he personally left Egypt."

Customer Satisfaction Survey for the Egyptian Exodus

Thank you for your participation in the Exodus from Egypt! Please take the following brief survey so that we can continue to bring you the highest level of Divine Service.

1. How would you rate your experience of slavery?
 - a. Very good: I learned a lot about tomb construction and gained useful skills for building future temples
 - b. Satisfactory: It built character and I learned about labor organizing
 - c. Unsatisfactory: Too much whipping/murdering babies, too few coffee breaks

2. How would you rate the signs and wonders leading up to the Exodus?
 - a. Very good: Loved the edgy mix of skin ailments and animal swarms
 - b. Satisfactory: Nice correlation between plagues and Egyptian gods
 - c. Unsatisfactory: Fire-and-brimstone "hail" very overdone; too many dead fish

3. Which of the following best describes your experience with the Angel of Death?
 - a. Too scary: Some of my best friends are (were) Egyptians
 - b. Thrilling: Enjoyed the strobe-light/creepy fog/path-of-destruction effects
 - c. Awkward: "Firstborn" clause encouraged sibling rivalry and age discrimination

4. Would you recommend leaving slavery to a friend?
 - a. No: Left the fleshpots of Egypt just to whine in the desert for 40 years
 - b. Maybe: Not for everyone; best for free-spirit types
 - c. Yes: Looking forward to more fireworks on Mount Sinai
